

Orestis Symvoulidis

Orestis Symvoulidis have received his first BA in painting in Athens School of Fine Arts with Professor Chronis Botsoglou in 2006.

He graduated with A Unanimusly (Grade: 29/30).

He completed his second BA in Printmaking in Athens School of Fine Arts with Professor Michalis Arfaras.

He graduated in 2013 (Grade: 9,56)

He has participated in several exhibitions.

In 2007 he was the winner of the first prize in the art festival co-organized by Nestle and The Athens School of Fine Arts.

In October of 2012 he was the recipient of the first prize of the art festival that was organized by Hellenic National Defense General Staff in collaboration with The Athens School of Fine Arts.

For many years he has been involved with sculpting.

He works as a freelancer (external collaborator) in the Greek national opera (department of sculpture and painting).

He also produces 3d graphics, with a focus on 3d models and illustration.

For the past year he has been working in industry as 3d senior model designer.